1, Nina: She is 14 and she loves classical music. She plays in concerts and she wants to act. She doesn't want to go to a boarding school.

2, Karl: He is 13. He enjoys languages at school but his favourite hobby is sport. His parents can meet him only at weekends because they work in another city.

3, Kim: She is 16 and she is very good at languages but her ambition is to be a professional swimmer. She wants to do a short course to improve her skills in the water.

4, Jo: He is 12 and his sister Emma is fourteen and they are on holiday at their grandparents. They don't like sport but they want to make friends with other teenagers and have fun.

5, Evelyn: She learns 3 languages and she is thinking of taking up another one – Chinese. She loves travelling to different countries with her classmates or with her friends in the summer.

RECOMMENDED SCHOOLS

a, Hilliers School for Boys: It's a famous boarding school for boys aged between 13-14. Students can learn different languages at 5 levels and the school's sport facilities are great: they offer rugby, tennis, cricket, cycling and judo. Travelling home at the weekends are well organised.

b, InterEurope School: It's a new school with many languages: French, German, Spanish, Russian and Mandarin Chinese. All students go on an international exchange every summer.

c, Greybridge School: It's good for girls between 14-16. The students learn drama and music. They can play in concerts every month. The lessons start at 8 and last till 4 p.m. The school doesn't have a student's hostel.

d, Southbank Sports Academy: It's open to boys and girls between 16-18. This school offers two-week courses in 20 different sports including hockey, swimming and basketball. All the teachers are professional sportsmen and sportswomen.

e, Activity School: It's a summer school for students who like spending their time with other boys and girls. The course activities include arts and craft, Monopoly – the board game and learning new songs. Siblings are welcome at half price.
