Choose one of the topics below and write a composition of 200-250 words.

1. Kids Writing Magazine has asked its readers to send in stories for its annual short story competition. The story must end with the following words: On Saturday Jane woke up, switched off her smart phone and left for a desert island. Write your story.
2. Write an article with the title How to avoid the great holiday overspend. Give the readers tips on how to manage your budget when you are on holiday. The following phrases might come in handy and must be used in your writing: deserve to treat, low-rate credit card, spendthrift, leave tips, get a currency converter, pricey souvenirs
3. A popular Internet forum for kids has asked its followers to submit short stories for an art festival. The story begins like this: On Tuesday I had to babysit a puppy. What a day!
4. Write a story for the school magazine about the day you discovered a magic carpet in your room.
