5. Read the letter.

Hi!

I'm Luke. I live in Brighton on the 1) _____ coast of England, with my mum, my dad and my younger 2) _____, Callum.

I'm 15 years old. I go to William Cobbett School in Brighton. I'm in Year 11, which means my classmates are 3) _____ 15 and 16 years old. At the end of the school year, in June, we have to take G.C.S.E. examinations. The title stands for General Certificate of Secondary Education. These are national examinations and most school students in England take them, usually at the age of 16. I'm going to take 11 subjects. Everyone has to take 4) _____ in the core subjects – Maths, English and Science and 5) _____ (that's Physical Education) – and then you can choose from loads of other subjects. I'm doing English Literature, History, French, German, Statistics, Religious Studies and Graphics.

What am I good at? Well, I'm pretty good at Maths and Science but, to be 6) _____, I'm not so great at English. I 7) _____ to improve my writing. I really enjoy Graphics, though drawing is not my strong point. What subjects don't I like? Well, I used to 8) _____ German but now I like it a lot. That's because I've got a new teacher and she's really great. But I'm not keen on History and I can't stand R.S. Actually, to be honest, my favourite 9) _____ is Music, but I don't do it at school.

Music is my main 10) _____. I play drums in a band. We're called Swelter, and our music is short of indie rock. We rehearse once a week for two hours at the Brighton Music Service Studio. Next Saturday we're playing a gig at the school, so I'm practising hard at the moment (when I've finished my homework, of course!) The noise drives my parents crazy!
